Report

All who participated in the Summer Employment Phase have returned to school and have been notified of the Tutoring Schedule which will begin October 4, 2004, for the duration of the academic school year.

Two students have returned to their summer employment worksites by request from their supervisors due to outstanding performances.

Total goals MET during the Summer Employment element of the program:

Occupational Skills	30
Work Readiness Skills	33
Basic Skills	10

One of our foster youth's worksite supervisors has hired her for part-time work after school. The supervisor has expressed a desire to adopt the student and is now in the Mentoring Stage to be eligible for the adoption of the foster child.
